

THE CALL

A BIMONTHLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

Seasons Greetings!

On behalf of The Roanoke Electric Co-op team, I would like to extend season's greetings and best wishes to our member-owners for a very Merry Christmas. Please note, our offices will be closed Dec. 24-25. Our normal business hours will resume Wednesday, Dec. 26. May joy and peace be yours throughout this festive holiday season.

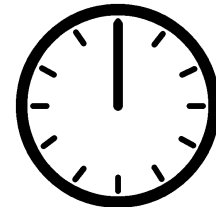

- President & CEO Curtis Wynn

TIME MATTERS

How the co-op's new rate incentive can lower your bill

Do you know what time it is? It's time for residential member-owners to consider Roanoke Electric Co-op's new "Time of Day" rate option. Those who choose this rate incentive can reap savings on their electric bill by shifting energy usage to off-peak times when rates are lowest.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Dec. 13: Free workshop focuses on nonprofit sector

Are you curious about the world of nonprofits? This is the last day to register for the "Capacity Building for Nonprofits" workshop, to be hosted by The Roanoke Center tomorrow, Dec. 13. To learn more about this free training opportunity, read more.

ON DEADLINE

Last call for Youth Tour applications

A free trip to the nation's capital may be just an application away for two local high school students. The 2019 Electric Cooperative Youth Tour offers these students the opportunity to join others from across the country in what is often described as "a trip of a lifetime." Deadline to apply: Dec. 21, 2018. Read more.

TODAY'S TIP

Decorating Dos: Make the switch to LED holiday lighting

Getting into the holiday spirit? You may want to consider decorating with newer and cooler LED lights. While switching out old incandescent holiday lights with newer LED lighting may cost a little more upfront, it will save you in the long run on your electric costs.
