

THE CALL

A BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Free conference for forest landowners in July

Calling all local forest landowners. There is an upcoming free conference being offered that is just for you. The two-day gathering will provide relevant and timely information on available services and programs, designed to promote sustainable private forests for generations to come. For details, read more.

JOIN US

July 3: Serving up appreciation and hot dogs

Not sure if you know this, but the folks at Roanoke Electric Co-op really do appreciate their member-owners. And they have set aside a special day and special way of saying thanks. Come join us for a hot dog lunch on July 3rd for Member Appreciation Day.

Read more.

TEST TAKERS

Want to go on a home energy adventure?

To avoid wasting energy in unused rooms in your home, what is the one thing you should avoid doing? If you don't know the answer, it can be found on our Home Energy Adventure. This interactive tool allows you to test your knowledge on a variety of ways to reduce energy consumption and save on energy costs. Check it out.

TODAY'S TIP

How to stay safe in the summer heat

Summer has officially arrived, bringing with it forecasts for extreme heat in the coming weeks. To ensure you stay safe and healthy during potentially dangerous weather conditions this season, Roanoke Electric Co-op urges you to take note of these timely recommendations.

Read more.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Independence Day office closing

In observance of Independence Day, Roanoke Electric Co-op offices will be closed next Wednesday. Normal business operations will resume, Thursday, July 5. We wish you all a safe and happy Fourth of July!

Roanoke Electric Cooperative

Your Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

Contact: Lori Everhart, communication manager | Roanoke Electric Cooperative | 252-209-2236 |
socialmedia@roanokeelectric.com | www.roanokeelectric.com