

THE CALL

A BIMONTHLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Co-op appoints new VP of Corporate Services

Roanoke Electric Co-op is rolling out the welcome mat for Cathy Davison, who will serve as its new vice president of corporate services. In her key role, she will lead efforts to improve programs and services offered to the co-op's membership. Read more.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Blood drive set for Oct. 25, in response to recent hurricane

The American Red Cross, in partnership with ACE Hardware of Ahoskie, will host a blood drive to support ongoing relief efforts in the wake of Hurricane Florence. For more information about the event scheduled for Oct. 25, read more.

THE SCOOP

What's going on with Roanoke Connect?

Are you curious about the status of Roanoke Connect? Did the recent major storms impact the rollout of high-speed internet service and deployment of smart technology in the region? For the latest developments on this popular co-op initiative, read more.

REC SOLUTIONS

Before you touch that thermostat ...

As colder temps grip the region, you may be tempted to crank up your thermostat. Before you make that move, consider turning back the thermostat 8 to 10 degrees, if you plan to be away from home or asleep for eight hours. Want an easier way to save on heating and cooling costs? Consider the co-op's smart thermostat program. Check it out.

FOR MEMBERS ONLY

Wanted: Your feedback on our ongoing survey

Roanoke Electric Co-op is currently conducting a survey of our member-owners. A research firm, acting on our behalf, will be calling many of you to help us measure overall satisfaction with co-op services. The survey will conclude by the end of this month. Read more.

Contact: Lori Everhart, communication manager | Roanoke Electric Cooperative | 252-209-2236 |
socialmedia@roanokeelectric.com | www.roanokeelectric.com