A BIMONTHLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

2019

New Year's Message from the President & CEO

What's in store for Roanoke Electric Cooperative in 2019? The new year promises to be a busy and productive one, as we implement plans to tap into new technologies like never before. From deploying fault detectors to advanced metering systems, the co-op is raising the bar to provide superior service this year. To learn more about these initiatives, co-op President & CEO Curtis Wynn offers this special message.

HELPING HAND

Need help paying your heating bill?

The Low Income Energy Assistance program is currently accepting applications from eligible households that need help paying their energy bills. The sign-up period runs through the end of March or until funds are exhausted. For more information, contact the Roanoke Electric Co-op Care Team. Read more.

LET'S PLAY BALL!

Seeking young ballers for basketball camp

Scholarship applications are currently being accepted for two basketball camps scheduled to take place in June. All local 6th through 8th graders are eligible to apply. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to boost basketball skills, learn the value of teamwork and make new friends. Check it out.

MAKING CHANGE

Operation RoundUp delivers goodwill

The Murfreesboro Police Department was able to replace obsolete laptops in its squad cars, thanks to the generosity of co-op member-owners who rounded up their electric bills. As part of the co-op's Operation RoundUp program, more than $13,000 was donated recently to worthy causes. Who else was the recipient of all this goodwill? Read more.

NOTABLE & QUOTABLE

"Cheers to a new year and another chance for us to get it right."
