

THE CALL

A BIMONTHLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

SURVEY SEASON

Co-op's satisfaction survey now underway

The next time the phone rings, it may be your co-op calling. Roanoke Electric Co-op is currently reaching out to some of its member-owners to gather feedback on their overall satisfaction with co-op services. Participants are being randomly selected for the survey calls, which will conclude at the end of the month. Read more.

TALK TIME!

Why you don't want to miss Straight Talk

Are you curious about what Roanoke Electric Co-op is doing to lower your electric bill? Would you like to get an update on the co-op's popular broadband project? Did you hear about its new electric vehicle initiative? If you want answers to any of these questions, they can be found at this year's series of Straight Talk forums. The next one is set for 6 p.m., April 18 at the Northampton County Culture & Wellness Center. To learn more about what's in store for these gatherings, read more.

OUR PLANET

April 22: Join our Earth Day celebration!

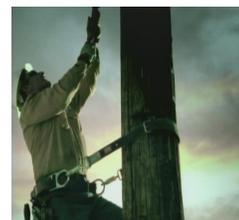

Earth Day is a global event celebrated by more than 193 countries. Locally, Roanoke Electric Co-op is marking this special occasion by hosting a spectacular "Earth Day Fair." Member-owners are invited to attend the April 22 event at its headquarters, where lots of food, fun and festivities will be among the many highlights. Read more.

SAY WHAT?

Got electric power? Thank a lineman

Did you know that National Lineman Appreciation Day was April 8? If you missed it, it's not too late to show some appreciation for Roanoke Electric Co-op's dedicated line crew. One day was not enough, so we invite you to join us, as we plan to show our thanks for the rest of the month. So, if you cross paths with one of our line workers, let them know you're grateful too for all they do to keep the lights on.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Office Closing in observance of Good Friday

Roanoke Electric Co-op has announced its offices will be closed in observance of Good Friday, April 19. Normal business operations will resume on Monday, April 22.

Contact: Lori Everhart, communication manager | Roanoke Electric Cooperative | 252-209-2236 | socialmedia@roanokeelectric.com | www.roanokeelectric.com