

THE CALL

A BIMONTHLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

HUMAN CONNECTIONS

Co-op supports rural electrification effort in Bolivia

Members of Roanoke Electric Co-op's line crew have joined forces on a volunteer mission to bring electricity to an impoverished Bolivian village for the very first time. As part of the "Brighter World Initiative," they are connecting power lines, building infrastructure and stringing miles of power line -- all by hand. Read more.

SAFETY FIRST!

May: Let's spring into electrical safety

National Electrical Safety Month should serve as a reminder for all to look around for potential electrical safety hazards. From overloaded power sockets to electric appliances in close proximity to water sources, these could pose a danger to yourself and your home. For more information on the safety warnings highlighted as part of this month's campaign, read more.

LEADING THE WAY

Co-op Leadership Camp applications due May 25

Roanoke Electric Co-op is encouraging local rising sophomores, juniors and seniors to apply for the upcoming Cooperative Leadership Camp. The week-long summer camp program offers participants the opportunity to hone leadership skills and learn about the cooperative way of doing business. Read more.

Thanks for joining our Earth Day celebration!

The Roanoke Electric Co-op family extends a special thanks to all community members who joined us for our recent Earth Day celebration. "This annual celebration recognizes our collective responsibility and commitment to protecting the environment," said the co-op's CEO Curtis Wynn. "We appreciate all who participated in the day's festivities and programs promoting environmental awareness and stewardship."
